LITTLE SEEDS CHILDREN'S BOOKS

Children's Activity and Learning Pack

Coloring, matching, drawing, memory verses and conversation starters for three Little Seeds books.

Planting Seeds. Growing Minds. Shaping Generations.

Activities designed for ages 4–8 · Book 1 is for ages 3–8 · Books 2 and 3 are for ages 4–8

WELCOME

A note for parents and teachers

This pack gives children simple, hands-on ways to enjoy the three Little Seeds books again after reading them: coloring pages, matching games, short writing and drawing activities, a memory verse for each book, and a guide to help you talk together.

Read the book first. Then choose the activities that suit the child. Younger children may want you to read the instructions and write their answers; older children can work more on their own. Nothing here needs to be finished in one sitting.

INSIDE THIS PACK

BOOK 1 OF 3

The Little Boy Who Learned to Share

A Story About Generosity, Kindness, and God's Love

ABOUT THE BOOK

Kito loves mangoes. When his friend Amara asks for one, he decides to keep every mango for himself. But soon, Kito discovers that having something all to yourself does not always bring happiness. With gentle wisdom from his mother and a lesson from the Bible, Kito learns that sharing can turn an ordinary day into something wonderful.

THEMES

Discussion Guide: The Little Boy Who Learned to Share

Use these questions after reading the book. There are no “wrong” answers to the open questions; listen to what the child notices. Pause, wait, and ask a follow-up question: “Why do you think so?”

QUESTIONS TO TALK ABOUT TOGETHER

1. What does Kito love? What happens when his friend Amara asks for one?
2. How did Kito feel after he shared his mangoes?
3. What gentle wisdom does Mama share? What lesson from the Bible does Kito hear?
4. What did Kito discover when he shared with Amara?
5. What is something you could share with a friend or a family member this week?
6. How can we show kindness to someone who has less than we do?

THE BIBLE CONNECTION

The memory verse is Acts 20:35 (KJV): “It is more blessed to give than to receive.” Help children say it in their own words: when we give, God can bless us in a special way. Look for a simple way to give this week.

TRY THIS TOGETHER

Choose one small act of giving: share a snack, make a card for someone, or set aside a toy or book to give. Afterwards, ask: “How did it feel to give?”

TIPS FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Keep the focus on warmth and encouragement. Praise kindness you notice. Sharing is learned slowly, with practice and patience.

BOOK 2 OF 3

Who Made Everything?

A Little Book About God the Creator

ABOUT THE BOOK

A picture book that helps children see that God is the Creator of all things, drawn from Genesis 1 and 2. Inside, children explore the days of creation, learn that every person is made in God's image, give thanks to God, and discover how to care for His creation, with a drawing activity, questions for little learners, a memory verse, and a note for parents and teachers.

Discussion Guide: Who Made Everything?

Use these questions after reading, one at a time. The book introduces the creation account in Genesis 1:1–2:3; the aim is for children to know and appreciate the God who made everything.

QUESTIONS TO TALK ABOUT TOGETHER

1. Who made the heavens and the earth? What did God make on the first day? On the second? On the fourth?
2. What kinds of creatures did God make on the fifth day?
3. Why did God rest on the seventh day? (His work of creation was complete; God never grows tired.)
4. In whose image did God create people? What does that tell us about how we treat each other?
5. Why should we care for God's creation? What is one way we can do that this week?
6. What can you thank God for today?

THE BIBLE CONNECTION

Genesis 1:1 (KJV): "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." For further reading: Genesis 1:1–31; Genesis 2:1–3; Psalm 24:1; Psalm 90:2; Psalm 139:14.

TRY THIS TOGETHER

Take a short walk with your child. Invite them to name things God created, and ask what they notice about the different plants, animals and features of the world.

TIPS FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Help children tell the difference between what the Bible says and the examples you use to explain it. The goal is to know and appreciate the God who made the world, not only to name created things.

Discussion Guide: The Little Bird Who Lost Her Way Home

Use these questions after reading the book. Invite children to say how they feel, and let them know that feeling afraid sometimes is normal and that they are not alone.

QUESTIONS TO TALK ABOUT TOGETHER

1. What happens when Tuli follows the butterfly?
2. What does Mama do when she sees Tuli?
3. Who helps you when you feel lost, worried or afraid?
4. What does the story show us about God's care and protection?
5. What can we do when we feel afraid? Who can we ask for help?
6. What gives you hope?

THE BIBLE CONNECTION

Psalm 56:3 (KJV): "What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee." Explain simply: when we feel afraid, we can tell God and trust Him to care for us, and He often helps us through people who love us.

TRY THIS TOGETHER

Invite the child to draw or name one person who helps them feel safe. Then pray a short prayer together: "God, thank You for caring for me. When I am afraid, help me to trust You."

TIPS FOR PARENTS AND TEACHERS

Do not push children to "be brave." Comfort first, then encourage. Notice and name what children do well when they are scared.
